The Holy Cradle Song.

The following cradle song, supposed to have been composed in the period of the Virgin Mary, and formerly believed to have been sung by ber, is said to be one of the oldest poems of the Christian era. Will some one translate it into smooth English verse?

Dormi, fili dormi! mater Cautat unigenito; Dormi, puer, dormi! pater Nato clamat raivulo: Millies titi laudes cavimus Mille, mille, millies.

Dormi, cor et meus thornus; Dormi matris jabilum r Aurium celestis sonus, Et su-ve sibilum! Millies tibi, &c., &c. Ne quid d sit, sternsm ro-is, Sternem ce juce violis, Pavimentum by conthis E mæs ce filis, Millies tibi, & ., &c. Silvis musicam, pastores Convocabo protimus; Illis pulli sunt priores; Memo co it to stips.

Millies tibi laudes cacin us

Mille, mille, millies, -Hartford Courant, Jan. 29.

TRANSLATION. Sleep, son, sleep! the Virgin Mother Singeth to the Only Born; Sleep, boy slee; ! again the father

Calleth to the fittle child. To Thee, conselessly, infinite praises-Infinite-steg we ouselessly.

Sleep, O joy! my adoration; Sleep, tay Mother's rapt delight; Thou incarnate Voice from Heaven Gentle whisper from above. To Thee, endlessly, to finite praises-Infinite-sing we endlessly.

That naught be wanting, let me reatter Violets on the hay, and roses All the floor I'll strew with byzoinths. And the lowly erib with it is.

To Thee, craselessly, endless praises— Eadless—sing we ceaselessly. If Thou wouldest mu-ic, hither I will sum non quick the shenherds: None there are who can excel them-

None on earth sing more divinely. To I nee, ceaselessly, infinite praises-Infinite-sing we masslessly.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE

-1881-

The ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE, begun in 1709, is the oldest newspaper in the State, and the only daily published in Northern Virginia. It has survived, with few exceptions, all the public presses in America which saw with it the dawn of the nineteenth century. It lives, too, not in decay, but full of life and vigor, giving all the news, telling the truth without fear, favor or affection, trenching on the privacy of no man's home, but full to the brim with all public information, and giving daily honest judgments of public men and public measures.

It furnishes the news telegrams of the New York Associated Press and of Reuter's European agency, being, with but three exceptions, the only paper between Baltimore and Richmond that is thus connected with the great fountsins of the

With the coming year all the long tried and improved methods of making a standard newspaper will be continued, with such additional facilities as post experienc, justifies the proprietor in-believing will add to the capacity of the Gazette to serve its readers. It expects to render faithful service to the city, the state and the country by a candid criticism of men and events in the in crest of the people of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

To meet all the demands upon it, the Gazette will be made a WASHINGTON and RICH-MOND NEWSPAPER, as well as an ALEX. ANDRIA JOURNAL. The Richmond and Washington news of past years has left little to improve, but yet greater effort will be made to insure absolute perfection in these departments,

The city of Alexandria will find as usual its daily history in each evening's issue, and the intelligence of that section of the Commonwealth which nature has bound to Alexandria by the curvature of its mountains or the courses of its rivers as well as that portion linked to us by the iron bands of railways, will be assiduously

The Business and Commercial columns of the Gazette will be filled with the earliest and most exact commercial news, edited with such painstaking care as will render an error, where even slight errors are dangerous, impossible.

The Cattle Markets of all the leading points of the world whose rates affect this market will be quoted, and regular statements of the Baltimore, Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria sales of cattle vill appear.

The Figur, Grain and Produce movements will be noted daily, and the sales of the Alexan dris and neighboring markets given with accuracy and dispatch. The Grocery and other markets will receive constant attention, and the money or stock markets of the country epitomized for its columns, full details being given to all streks, &c, waich find investors in this section of the country.

The advertising columns of the Gazette offer inducements which experience has shown to af ford greater returns for a small investment than any other which can be made.
